AGENDA REQUEST & STAFF REPORT

For Board Business Meeting of November 23, 2015

---

DATE: November 12, 2015

FROM: Steve Reinke                      911                      541-322-6101

TITLE OF AGENDA ITEM:

Consider resolutions to approve that the area within the boundaries of the Countywide Law Enforcement District and the Rural County Law Enforcement District be included in a proposed new 911 Service District.

PUBLIC HEARING ON THIS DATE? No.

BACKGROUND AND POLICY IMPLICATIONS:

In order for the Service District to change its permanent levy rate, the current District must be dissolved and a new District must be formed to take its place with a revised permanent levy rate. This process may be accomplished concurrently with a single ballot measure. To place the measure on the May 2016 ballot, resolutions are needed from two-thirds of the public safety entities in the District's service area on a population basis. The BOCC serves as the Governing Board for the two law enforcement service districts.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS:

None.

RECOMMENDATION & ACTION REQUESTED:

Adopt the two resolutions.

ATTENDANCE: Steve Reinke.

DISTRIBUTION OF DOCUMENTS:

One original of each resolution to Steve Reinke at the 911 Service District.
