

IN THE JUSTICE COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON
FOR THE COUNTY OF DESCHUTES

In the Matter of the) Violations Bureau)

GENERAL ORDER No. 2026-01

It appearing to the Court that changes should occur in the Violations Bureau Authority; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Violations Bureau Authority, attached as Exhibit A, and the Violations Bureau Fine Schedule, attached as Exhibit B and Exhibit C, are effective May 1, 2026, and supersede all previous Violations Bureau Authorities and Fine Schedules.

DATED this 25 day of March, 2026.

CHARLES N. FADELEY, Justice of the Peace

VIOLATIONS BUREAU AUTHORITY

Effective through April 30, 2026

I.

Statutory Duties and Powers

The Violations Bureau Clerks shall have the duties and powers as established by ORS 153.800.

II.

Authority

The Violations Bureau Clerks will have authority over any and all violations for which the only penalty that may be imposed is a fine or forfeiture, and shall accept:

- a. Written or personal appearance;
- b. Entry of plea;
- c. Payment of fine, costs, assessments, and presumptive fine forfeiture.

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to impose reduced fines based on the Violations Bureau Fine Schedule, attached as Exhibit B and Exhibit C, except for cases involving:

- a. Any person who has been convicted of, or who has signed a plea of no contest to one or more previous offenses within the preceding 12 months within the jurisdiction of this court;
- b. Any person who is charged with a Class A violation;
- c. Any person who is charged with an offense involving a motor vehicle accident;
- d. Any person who is charged with speeding in a highway work zone, a posted school zone, or a designated safety corridor;
- e. Any person who has a provisional drivers license;
- f. Any person who does not have an Oregon drivers license;
- g. Any person who is charged with PUC weight or Federal Motor Carrier offenses;
- h. Any offense involving the use of a controlled substance other than Class E violations.

III.

Deferred Payment of Fine

The Violations Bureau Clerks may extend time for payment in accordance with payment guidelines established by the Justice Court Administrator.

IV.

Appearance by Letter

Appearances by letter shall be forwarded to the Justice of the Peace for decision except that the Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to handle appearance by letter if:

1. The letter is received prior to the offender's first appearance date or within the grace period and the offender does not contest the citation; and
2. The offender specifically requests to attend a Seat Belt Diversion or a Traffic Safety Diversion and the citation qualifies for referral to the diversion program by a Violations Bureau Clerk; or
3. The letter is an appearance only, and makes no explanation of the offense, and does not contain any special request outside the authority of the Violations Bureau Clerks.

Effective through April 30, 2026, cont.

V.

Presumptive Fine Forfeiture

Upon receipt by mail or by credit card of the presumptive fine amount without an accompanying plea or with a plea of No Contest, the Violations Bureau Clerk shall enter a forfeiture in the amount of the presumptive fine written on the citation, or in the amount of the minimum fine allowed by statute, whichever is greater.

VI.

Failure to Appear

All violation offenders will be given a fourteen-day grace period, following the date set for appearance on the citation, within which to appear and enter a plea.

1. Within the first seven days of the grace period, offenders may appear before the judge, before a Violations Bureau Clerk, or by letter. Within the second seven days of the grace period, offenders may appear before a Violations Bureau Clerk or by letter.
2. If an offender fails to appear in person or by mail by the fourteenth day of the grace period, the Violations Bureau Clerk shall enter a conviction and fine.
 - a. The fine will equal the presumptive fine amount scheduled on the citation, not to exceed the maximum fine allowed by law, and will include assessments.
 - b. The $65 Justice Court Processing Fee, established by Deschutes County Code 4.12.060, shall be imposed as a late fee.
 - c. The Violations Bureau Clerk shall immediately notify the offender of the conviction and payment terms.

In traffic violations, defendants shall have license sanctions entered for failure to appear.

VII.

Resetting Appearance Dates

1. First Appearance Dates: The Violations Bureau Clerks will have authority to reset first appearance dates on violation cases, if the request is made prior to the date set for appearance on the citation. The first appearance may be reset one time only, and the new date shall be set within two weeks of the original appearance date.
2. Trial Dates: The Violations Bureau Clerks have the authority to reset trial dates once for the offender and once for the officer on each violation, if that request is made in writing one week prior to the date set for trial. All second requests by a party to reset trial must be approved by the judge.

IX.

City Parking Violations

1. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to reduce the amount of the bail forfeiture in city parking violation cases by $10.00 when a late fee has been added for failure to pay within five (5) days of the alleged violation. This is allowed only if the owner of the vehicle contacts the court within 30 days from the date the citation was issued, requests that the late fee be waived, and pays the original forfeiture amount.
2. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to dismiss city parking violation citations where the DMV record shows the vehicle owner as "Unknown", if the fine has not been paid within 30 days of the date the citation was issued.

Effective through April 30, 2026, cont.

IX.

Seat Belt Diversion

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to refer offenders to Seat Belt Diversion for seat belt or child restraint charges if the offender has not had a seat belt conviction within five years preceding the current offense and has not attended a seat belt diversion class within five years preceding the current offense.

1. The offender shall enter a plea of no contest and the Violations Bureau Clerks shall impose an alternative fine based upon the Violations Bureau Fine Schedule.
2. The Violations Bureau Clerks shall impose a $65 court fee at the time the offender is referred to Seat Belt Diversion.
3. If the offender elects to pay the fine after entering into the diversion, the Court Processing Fee shall not be applied to the fine amount.

X.

Traffic Safety Diversion

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to refer offenders to Traffic Safety School Diversion, except for No Insurance, No Operator License and Use of Mobile Communications Device charges, if the offender:

1. Is charged with no more than one traffic violation that qualifies for disposition through the Violations Bureau, after any other charges have been dismissed under the Violations Bureau Clerk's authority;
2. Has had no moving violations on their record in the past five years;
3. Who signs an affidavit stating they have not participated in a Traffic Safety School Diversion program within the past five years;
4. Who signs an agreement stating they will not receive a citation for further moving violations for 180 days following the commencement of the diversion period; and,
5. Who pays a $100 diversion fee pursuant to ORS 135.891(2) at the time the offender is referred to Traffic Safety School Diversion.

The offender shall enter a plea of no contest and the Violations Bureau Clerks shall impose an alternative fine. If the offender elects to pay the fine after entering into the diversion, the Court Processing Fee shall not be applied to the fine amount.

XI.

Bicycle Diversion

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to refer bicycle offenders to Bicycle Diversion if the offender has not attended a bicycle diversion class within five years preceding the current offense.

1. The offender shall enter a plea of no contest and the Violations Bureau Clerks shall impose an alternative fine based upon the Violations Bureau Fine Schedule.
2. The Violations Bureau Clerks shall impose a $100 diversion fee pursuant to ORS 135.891(2) at the time the offender is referred to Bicycle Diversion.
3. The offender shall sign an agreement stating they will attend the diversion class, pay the classroom fee, and will provide proof of class completion to the Court within 90 days of entering into the diversion.
4. If the offender elects to pay the fine after entering into the diversion, the Court Processing Fee shall not be applied to the fine amount.

Effective through April 30, 2026, cont.

XII.

Dismissal

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to dismiss charges under the following circumstances:

1. The offender has been referred to Traffic Safety Diversion or Seat Belt Diversion and has successfully completed all obligations.
2. The judge gives the offender a period of time to complete a specific condition in order to have a charge dismissed, and the condition is successfully completed within that time period.
3. A law enforcement officer has stamped and signed defendant's summons, indicating that the offense has been corrected.
4. The offender is charged with failing to provide proof of liability insurance, and presents proof of insurance that contains:
 - a. a vehicle description matching the vehicle on the citation; and,
 - b. an effective date that includes the date the citation was issued.

When an offender makes a first appearance on a citation with more than one charge, and the Violations Bureau Clerk is able to dismiss one or more charges based upon 3. or 4. above, and only one charge remains, the Violations Bureau Clerk can reduce the fine or otherwise proceed as if the citation had carried only the one remaining charge.

XIII.

Determining Multiple Conviction Dates

When an offense case with more than one charge has multiple dates upon which the charges were disposed of due to the judge imposing a combination of conditions, diversions, and fines, the Violations Bureau Clerks shall:

1. On the original judgment:
 - a. Circle the determination for each charge as it is decided;
 - b. Enter their initials and the date next to any determination finalized by the clerk; and,
 - c. Upon determining the final charge, also enter that date and initial below the judge's signature.
2. On the abstract:
 - a. Conform to show the plea, finding, and determination for each charge;
 - b. Conform the signature of the judge who signed the original judgment; and,
 - c. Conform the judge's signature date to match the Violations Bureau Clerk's date entered in 1., c., above.

It appearing to the Court that changes should occur in the Violations Bureau Authority; effective May 1, 2026, now, therefore, and shall supersede previous shall be Violations Bureau Authorities and Fine Schedules.

VIOLATIONS BUREAU AUTHORITY

Effective May 1, 2026

XIV.

Statutory Duties and Powers

The Violations Bureau Clerks shall have the duties and powers as established by ORS 153.800.

XV.

Authority

2. The Violations Bureau Clerks will have authority over any and all violations for which the only penalty that may be imposed is a fine or forfeiture, and shall accept:
 - a. Written or personal appearance;
 - b. Entry of plea;
 - c. Payment of fine, costs, assessments, and presumptive fine forfeiture.

3. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to impose reduced fines based on the Violations Bureau Fine Schedule, attached as Exhibit D, except for cases involving:
 - a. Any person who is charged with an offense involving a motor vehicle accident;
 - b. Any person who is charged with speeding in a highway work zone, a posted school zone, or a designated safety corridor;
 - c. Any person who has a provisional drivers license;
 - d. Any person who does not have a valid drivers license, regardless of the State;
 - e. Any person who is charged with PUC weight or Federal Motor Carrier offenses;
 - f. Any offense involving the use of a controlled substance other than Class E violations.

XVI.

Deferred Payment of Fine

The Violations Bureau Clerks may extend time for payment in accordance with payment guidelines established by the Justice Court Administrator.

XVII.

Appearance by Letter

Appearances by letter shall be forwarded to the Justice of the Peace for decision except that the Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to handle appearance by letter if:

1. The letter is received prior to the offender's first appearance date or within the grace period and the offender does not contest the citation; and
2. The letter is an appearance only, and makes no explanation of the offense, and does not contain any special request outside the authority of the Violations Bureau Clerks.

Effective May 1, 2026, cont.

XVIII.

Presumptive Fine Forfeiture

Upon receipt by mail or by credit card of the presumptive fine amount without an accompanying plea or with a plea of No Contest, the Violations Bureau Clerk shall enter a forfeiture in the amount of the presumptive fine written on the citation, or in the amount of the minimum fine allowed by statute, whichever is greater.

XIX.

Failure to Appear

All violation offenders will be given a fourteen-day grace period, following the date set for appearance on the citation, within which to appear and enter a plea.

1. Within the fourteen days of the grace period, offenders may appear before a Violations Bureau Clerk or by letter.
2. If an offender fails to appear in person or by mail by the fourteenth day of the grace period, the Violations Bureau Clerk shall enter a conviction and fine.
 - d. The fine will equal the presumptive fine amount scheduled on the citation, not to exceed the maximum fine allowed by law, and will include assessments.
 - e. The $65 Justice Court Processing Fee, established by Deschutes County Code 4.12.060, shall be imposed as a late fee.
 - f. The Violations Bureau Clerk shall immediately notify the offender of the conviction and payment terms.

In traffic violations, defendants shall have license sanctions entered for failure to appear.

XX.

Resetting Appearance Dates

1. First Appearance Dates: The Violations Bureau Clerks will have authority to reset first appearance dates on violation cases. The defendant may contact the court to request a new arraignment date, if it is within 7 days of the scheduled arraignment date. The first appearance may be reset one time only, and the new date shall be set within two weeks of the original appearance date.
 - a. The Violations Bureau Clerks have the authority to reset first appearance dates at court check-in, on violation cases, if the defendant appears for their court appearance and an interpreter is needed and not available for them.
 - b. If it is after the 7-day grace period, the defendant can only appear by written explanation to the judge.
2. Trial Dates: The Violations Bureau Clerks have the authority to reset trial dates once for the defendant and once for the officer on each violation, if that request is made in writing one week prior to the date set for trial. All second requests by a party to reset trial must be approved by the judge.

XXI.

City Parking Violations

1. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to reduce the amount of the bail forfeiture in city parking violation cases by $10.00 when a late fee has been added for failure to pay within five (5) days of the alleged violation. This is allowed only if the owner of the vehicle contacts the court within 30 days from the date the citation was issued, requests that the late fee be waived, and pays the original forfeiture amount.

(City Parking Violations continued)

2. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to dismiss city parking violation citations where the DMV record shows the vehicle owner as “Unknown”, if the fine has not been paid within 30 days of the date the citation was issued.

XXII.

Seat Belt Diversion

The Violations Bureau Clerks will no longer offer to refer offenders to Seat Belt Diversion for seat belt or child restraint charges. Any offenders currently enrolled in seat belt diversion will be honored and their citations processed under the program guidelines.

XXIII.

Traffic Safety Diversion

The Violations Bureau Clerks will no longer offer Traffic Safety School Diversion. If the offender is currently in diversion, the court will process the citation under the program’s guidelines.

XXIV.

Photo Enforcement

1. Certificate of Innocence (COI) is for drivers of personal vehicles who were issued a photo enforcement citation and to claim they were not the driver at the time of the citation issuance. The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to dismiss charges under the following circumstances:
 - a. The COI must be filled out completely and a clear photocopy of the driver’s license is both submitted before the assigned arraignment date to the court.
 - b. The Violations Bureau Clerk will dismiss the citation, after verifying everything is received, then forward the information to the Redmond Police Department.
2. Affidavit of Non-Liability is for commercial and business drivers issued a photo enforcement citation and either were not the driver at the time of the citation or the business needs to identify who was operating the vehicle at the time of the violations, or was an emergency vehicle responding to a call.
 - a. The completed Affidavit of Non-Liability must be received before the assigned arraignment date.
 - b. The Violations Bureau Clerk will dismiss the citation, after verifying everything is received, then forward the information to the Redmond Police Department.

VIOLATIONS BUREAU AUTHORITY

Remains in effect

XXV.

Dismissal

The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to dismiss charges under the following circumstances:

1. The offender has been referred to Traffic Safety Diversion or Seat Belt Diversion and has successfully completed all diversion conditions.
2. The judge gives the offender a period of time to complete a specific condition in order to have a charge dismissed, and the condition is successfully completed within that time period.
3. A law enforcement officer has stamped and signed defendant's summons, indicating that the offense has been corrected.
4. The defendant is charged with failing to provide proof of liability insurance, and presents proof of insurance that contains:
 - a. a vehicle description that matches the vehicle on the citation; and,
 - b. an effective date that includes the date the citation was issued.
5. The defendant is charged with failing to renew their registration, and presents proof of renewed registration that contains:
 - a. a vehicle description that matches the vehicle on the citation.
6. The defendant is charged with No ODL or Driving While Suspended, and presents proof of valid license:
 - a. The clerk will run the defendant's DMV record to verify their driving record shows they have a valid license; and,
 - b. The defendant will pay a $65 court cost within 30 days.

When a defendant makes a first appearance on a citation with more than one charge, and the Violations Bureau Clerk is able to dismiss one or more charges based upon 3. 4. 5. or 6. above, and only one charge remains, the Violations Bureau Clerk can reduce the fine or otherwise proceed as if the citation had carried only the one remaining charge.

XXVI.

Determining Multiple Conviction Dates

When an offense case with more than one charge has multiple dates upon which the charges were disposed of due to the judge imposing a combination of conditions, diversions, and fines, the Violations Bureau Clerks shall:

1. On the original judgment:
 - a. Circle the determination for each charge as it is decided;
 - b. Enter their initials and the date next to any determination finalized by the clerk; and,
 - c. Upon determining the final charge, also enter that date and initial below the judge's signature.
2. On the abstract:
 - d. Conform to show the plea, finding, and determination for each charge;
 - e. Conform the signature of the judge who signed the original judgment; and,
 - f. Conform the judge's signature date to match the Violations Bureau Clerk's date entered in 1., c., above.

Remains in effect cont.

XXVII.

Suspension of Fines and Fees; Recall from Collections

1. Deceased Debtors: The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to suspend the unpaid portion of fines and fees for debtors who are proven to be deceased. Proof of death must be one of the following, and shall be attached to each case on which fines and fees are suspended:
 - a. DMV driving record that notes “deceased”;
 - b. Obituary that matches the debtor’s name and date of birth;
 - c. Newspaper article acknowledging the death, that notes the name and date of birth;
 - d. Collection company’s report of deceased debtors removed from the collection process.

XXVII.

Suspension of Fines and Fees; Recall from Collections

2. Suspending Fees: The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to suspend the unpaid portion of the following fees:
 - a. Collection fees:
 - i. When an account is recalled from collections;
 - ii. When a collection company reports an account is fully paid, and an additional collection fee imposed by the court was not added to that client’s collection balance.
 - b. License reinstatement fees:
 - i. When the suspension is vacated by order;
 - ii. When the conviction is vacated by order, and the fine is suspended by the judge;
 - iii. When it is discovered that the suspension was entered in error;
 - iv. When a collection company reports an account is paid in full, and an additional license reinstatement fee imposed by the court was not added to that client’s collection balance.
3. Recall from Collections: The Violations Bureau Clerks have authority to recall a case from collections when all fines and fees have been suspended by the judge or by the clerk.
